5. Cheryl Howard

On the map, Cheryl's location is actually further east of the red number 5. Travel a bit further down Hwy 152 to Hwy 61 on your right. Travel south to house number 2289 on the right-hand side of the road.

Cheryl is a poet and visual artist living and working in the Mimbres. Her visual art is primarily monoprint with collage and/or acrylic pen. Additional works are also mixed media, abstract painting, and photography. She is firmly rooted in the geography and colors of the southwest: studied and worked at the University of New Mexico, taught Sociology at UTEP in El Paso for 21 years, and retired to the Mimbres. She has two books of poetry: "In a Place/At a Time" and "Cemetery of Sand," and did the artwork for both. She lives on a little more than an acre of land with her border collie and a dozen chickens. She has an Airbnb and a big messy studio.
